Dear Madam Kazoo,

March, 1962

I just had to write and tell you what happened to me yesterday!

Since I started in fortune-telling business I have met a lot of characters, but the one that walked in yesterday topped them all. He wore a Zorro cape and a Davy Crockett cap and carried a much-used Hula Hoop. He said, "I would like du have a fortune toldt." I took him in the back-room, brought out the crystal ball and proceeded to tell his fortune. Well, this nut jumped up screaming, "Nein! Nein! Not me you dumkopf, I vant to know about those crazy kids who are seniors at de Martensdale High School!" He handed me a list of 25 names and said, "Can you do it?" Since, I consider myself the greatest fortune teller in the country, I looked at the first name on the list.

Suddenly it hit! I saw the student Matt Johnson as a 3-star general in the Marine Corps. After that first vision their futures came to me fast. A glance at the name Bev Couch and I just knew that girl was destined to become a twist instructor. I saw Marilyn Young as a beautician working on Jackie Kennedy's hair, and Tootie Stroud was a secretary to the president himself! Her boyfriend Jerome L'Estrange was pictured in the crystal ball as a Peace Corps representative in Mazonia, Africa. I saw him teaching the natives to play "5 card draw". I saw Ruth King as a Hollywood columnist writing---juicy gossip and hobnobbing with the stars. It's rumored that she and Fabian are an item! You'll never believe what Nancy Findley's destiny is! She is going to be a professional girl scout leader. I predicted that Alice Hutchcroft is to be the ambassador to the U.N. If anyone can give Nikita a rough time, she can. Ron Powers is going to be a marriage counselor; he and his wife, run it together. A senior that will really do good for this country is Chuck Wonderlin; he will revive the Packard Industry! In about 5 years I predict that the Globe Trotters will have a new coach; no other than Sonny Wheeler. Vic-Tanny better beware because Bill Chittenden will be opening up a Body Beautiful gym that will run Vic right out of business. Bills assistant in the womens section is Martha Wilkinson. Marilyn Alexander is going to be an Air Force wife with 4 kids. The Stork Club in New York better be on their toes because Sharon Wilgenbusch is going to open a night club called Sherrys Shangrila! Terry Nystrom and Jack Hanrahan are going to be her bouncers. Joe McCurnin will open the first high class pool hall called "Sir Joseph's Billiard Pavillion". Gary Middleswart will launch his new career in the silent movies. I saw that John Cassidy is the manager of the Cuban sugar field for the U. S. government. I predicted that Robert Griffiths will own the entire northern half of Iowa and turn it into a farm called "Griffiths Gardens". John Groth will take over a bus line and call it Groths Greyhounds. I saw in my crystal ball that Charles Woolson will be accepted as an astronaut and will be on the first space flight to the moon. Larry Nicholl will build a replica of the Leaning Tower of Pisa and use it for a silo. I predicted that Dick Wadle will go along with Charles Woolson to claim the moon for the United States and the Class of "62".
